

Covenant Leaders Ministry Newsletter (#ARGA2022)

ANOINTED REMNANT GLOBAL ASSEMBLIES

WHAT'S IN THIS ISSUE

Greetings ARGA Leaders and Executive/Legislative Staff,

The season of Thanksgiving is upon us, a most opportune time to display your leadership as it relates to Godly Thankfulness and inspire others to be Godly Thankful ambassadors. Hebrews 12:28 (NIV) declares “Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us be Thankful, and so worship God acceptable with reverence and awe”.

Inspiring others to be Godly Thankful produces cyclic spiritual Blessings, within every area of life, it links us to God’s unshakable kingdom!

Thankfulness generates inspiring actions, as inspiring actions creates brimming worship and deep reverent before God.

Inspiring individuals you lead is a skill all leaders are responsible to practice and implement. It’s a misnomer to think that only the senior leaders in a ministry should carry the primary role of inspiring others. Inspiring fellow congregants, friends, neighbors, co-workers, and family to be Godly Thankful is a Salvation team effort.

I totally understand, not all leaders are as inspirational as others, but all leaders must inspire others with their unique God given Anointing, or their leadership progress will be stagnated. Inspiration is not a stand-alone skill, it’s a body of Christ unified exertion of Thankfulness.

ARGA Leaders, lets ensure our Godly Thankfulness inspires others to move in a Kingdom direction ultimately facilitating spiritual growth and establishing a mindset of true Thanksgiving

To God Be the Glory,

Dr. Willie L. Bradley, Jr.
Bishop ARGA,
Presiding Prelate

Count Your Blessings

“And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all you need, you will abound in every good work” (2 Corinthians 9:8).

Counting our blessings requires a shift in perspective. Our Father’s thoughts are not our thoughts, nor are His ways our ways. If we drift towards the comparative structure of societal materialism, allowing social media feeds and nightly news reports to determine how satisfied we are with the status quo of our lives, we’ll embark on a never-ending quest of never enough.

The Creator of the universe holds each of His children in the palm of His hand, giving us what we need for each day. Now more than ever, we don’t know what each day will bring. Our calendars are constantly in flux as we erase and re-plan. But the chaos of the world we live in is in the capable hands of our great and good God. When we set our minds on the blessings in our lives, like the classic hymn sings, “God is over all.”

What Does It Mean To Count Your Blessings?

“And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus” (Philippians 4:7).

Scripture is full of definitive reminders of God’s blessings. The grateful assurances within the classic hymn, “Count Your Blessings,” positively realign our minds. Paul faithfully reminded the church at Galatia, “It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery” (Galatians 5:1).

5 Ways Counting Your Blessings Can Change the Trajectory of Your Day First, Remember.

“And my God will meet all your needs according to the riches of his glory in Christ Jesus” (Philippians 4:19).

Prayer journals are amazing tools for tracing answered prayers, but are not required to remember where God has come through for us in our lives. He is close to the brokenhearted, and He hears our prayers!

Every answer doesn’t look like a blockbuster miracle, or even the direct answer we prayed for, but He is moving and working in our lives every single day we wake to breathe. We can find hope even in the hard seasons we have endured. Vaneetha Rendall Risner wrote for Desiring God “My trial grounded my faith in ways that propriety and abundance never could.”

In Christ, we get to experience friendship with the God of Creation. He knows what we actually need. When we pour our hearts out completely to God, the Spirit translates, and our sovereign God’s heart is moved.

Remembering who God is, and how He has answered our prayers in the past, helps us change the trajectory of our day!

Second, Refocus.

“Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus” (Philippians 4:6-7).

Psychology Today explains “gratitude is perhaps the most important key to finding success and happiness in the modern day.” The accuracy of news reports and social media are difficult to discern. But there is one source of information we never have to question: the Word of God.

Alive and active, the same passage can move through our lives in different ways at different times. We have God’s word to remind us of what is true, and it’s important to refocus our thoughts when they start to go rogue with worry.

Paul reminded the Corinthians, “We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ” (2 Corinthians 10:5) We can lean on God's word, trusting it is relevant and applicable to our daily lives.

Third, Move Forward.

“But blessed is the one who trusts in the LORD, who's confidence is in him. They will be like a tree planted by the water that sends out its roots by the stream. It does not fear when heat comes; its leaves are always green. It has no worries in a year of drought and never fails to bear fruit” (Jeremiah 17:7-8).

When seeking to change the trajectory of a stressful and overwhelming day, choose to remember we are children of the Most High God, saved by Christ Jesus, and in-dwelt by the Holy Spirit. It's okay, and necessary, to fully feel all of our feelings. God designed us with emotions and sensitivities, they are not flaws.

The trick is not to stay in those feelings and emotions, but rather use them as a guide back to remember, refocus, and move forward. We can feel all of the feelings, but not stay stuck in them. They can propel us towards our God, who is amply ready and willing to help us take steps to fully live the blessed lives He's purposed us to, for His glory.

There are seasons in life when every day feels like a literal mystery, with everything we ever knew crumbling around us until all we're left with is the piece of land our feet occupy ... and our faith in Christ. Our faith gives us permission to freely feel fear, but then remember, refocus, and face the future standing on the solid ground God has provided through Christ.

Fourth, Trust God.

“Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured in your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you” (Luke 6:38).

Moving forward takes trust! When we remember, refocus, and begin to move forward, it simultaneously requires us to trust God. Runners, when facing more miles than they have ever run before, battle the doubt that their bodies and minds can make it to the end goal. One stride at a time, the goal is not to stop, no matter how slow, hesitant, painful, or hard. At the end of a hard workout, race, or distance they've never run before, they experience what's called a runner's high!

The unbelievable feeling of trusting God stride by stride with the days of our lives is indescribably better than runner's high! It's a divine experience, developed and maintained by spending time with our Father in His Word and in prayer and worship daily. If we wake with breath in our lungs, we can trust fully there is purpose for us to walk out! Increased trust in God changes the trajectory of our days, and our lives.

Fifth, Hope.

“Out of his fullness we have all received grace in place of grace already given” (John 1:16).

Remember, refocus, move forward, trust, and finally ... hope. Our hope is not in the things of this world, or even in the other people Jesus commanded us to love as we love ourselves. Our hope is in Christ Jesus, who died to save us from the power of sin and its consequence of death, by humbling Himself as He died on the cross. In that moment, He took on what we could never bear. That's love. In fact, Jesus is God's most eloquent and extravagant expression of love for us. Christ will again return. There will be no more death, all wrongs will be made right, and sickness and pain healed.

Setting our hearts to the hope we have in Christ changes the trajectory of our day. We don't know what each day will bring. There is no way for us to predict what only God knows. He's left us with wisdom from His Word, and evidence of His presence in creation all around us. The love of Jesus Christ moves through every believer, both to give and receive love as we make His name known on earth. Everything we do is to bring honor and glory to God. When we let go of our agenda, set fleeting feelings free, we embrace the freedom that cannot be stripped by any earthly force or person. Free to live. Free to love. Free to hope. That is life in Christ.

I am asking for your financial assistance. It will allow me to go into a private school and other programs like "Loving Me More" and teach a course entitled "Who AM I?" to young girls. I developed this course to help them in the areas of confidence, self-esteem, and how to use their mistakes to create a pathway to change.

The details are attached below. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Thank you,

Dear Friends:

My name is Christine Maxwell, I am the chairperson of the non-profit organization, Kingdom Resource Center, (KRC). We aspire to teach, train, inspire, and equip young people to become whole in body, soul, and spirit, so they will become productive and contributing citizens of the world.

One of my many passions is to help free young people from what I call Trauma Silence. They are suffering in silence because they are afraid to share their feelings and concerns with their parents and other loved ones for fear of negative judgment.

When I see trauma in young people, I am moved to do something to help. The late Maya Angelo, once said, "When you learn, Teach."

Please join me in a movement to help heal these children who are suffering in silence. I am asking for your help to change the trajectory of their lives by donating to KRC. Your donations will allow me to teach a course called, "Who Am I, I am who?" in schools. We are also partnering with the "Loving Me More" Project Fundraiser/GiveMiamiDay/The Power of the heels Foundation. A portion of your donations will be given to this project to assist in healing our children. You can also give directly to the givemiamiday.org.

The cost of the course is, One Hundred Ten Dollars, ($110), per student. The course consists of one hour class once a week for four weeks.
